About First Light

First Light is a charity supporting adults and children in Cornwall, Devon and the Isles of Scilly that have been affected by domestic abuse or sexual violence.

The charity was formed in 2017 when Twelves Company and Skoodyha merged to bring together the very best teams of specialist support workers and counsellors.

We are independent of statutory agencies, including the Police, and we help thousands of people every year.

Our name, First Light, reflects the work that we do with people making a brave move toward a brighter future away from violence and abuse.

We help people find hope again and take the first steps on a path towards recovery.
